Board To Take Anti-Smog Action

Declaring that "we don't want this area to become a second Los Angeles," P. A. McCreery, chairman of the Carmel Planning Commission, led the discussion on the increasing smog menace at Tuesday afternoon's regular meeting of the group in the City Hall.

Gladys Kiplinger, commission member, has studied the situation in and around the vicinity of Moss Landing for some time, and the general discussion was based on the report made by her. Preliminary action will be the drafting of a letter to be sent to chambers of commerce in this entire area with a request that each body take up the matter with the County Board of Supervisors.

Mrs. Kiplinger said that the increased smog has been observed daily by commuters to Fort Ord and on several different occasions the smog had drifted into both Salinas and Watsonville.

The smog is caused by the industrial plants near Moss Landing, it was said, and with the rumor that there is to be enlargement of the Kaiser holdings there, the situation is bound to become more and more acute.

Miss Kiplinger said that often the smoke drifts out to sea and is returned to the area with the incoming fog, creating a peculiar yellow glow to the countryside.

A special meeting of the Carmel City Council is scheduled for next Wednesday afternoon to discuss the drainage problems with that committee, and the matter will be referred to the body at that time. "We must do something now about this problem, before it is too late," McCreery said.

A discussion on the condition of trees along Ocean avenue and other parts of town was held, and

Spring Fashion Shows To Start Next Wednesday

The first of a series of spring fashion shows will be held at Pine Inn next Wednesday, with two showings at 12 and 1:15 o'clock. Carmel shops will take turns in presenting the shows, and the first will be one from the Gail Coupe Shop. Models will be Niki Newkirk, Serkka Minyard, Mrs. Jack Dalziel and Vera Watts.

Creating Game Refuge Discussed By Sportsmen

Planting seeds for ducks at the mouth of the Carmel River for the purpose of creating a game refuge was discussed at the regular meeting of the Carmel Sportsmen's Association at Mission Ranch. It is planned to go into this project in a matter of a few weeks.

Planting quail in various areas in this district was also discussed, and this matter will be taken up at a later date. The mouth of the river is, by county ordinance, prohibited to duck hunters.

Sam Colburn, Erica Franke Return From Sur District Junket With Art Plunder For New Group Show

BY ERICA FRANKE

The artists of the Big Sur Colony have joined in preparing for the introductory showing of painting, sculpture and graphic art by The New Group, to be held on March 3 at the Carmel Highlands Studio of the Malcolm Millards.

Sam Colburn and I went down the coast on Sunday and spent a delightful day visiting artists, looking at their new work and discussing the future of a contemporary gallery on the Peninsula.

We returned with a station wagon filled with paintings and sculpture, most of which have never before been exhibited. Henry Miller gave us two vivid water colors, Emil White, some of his delightful landscapes. Harrydick Ross contributed a large wood-carving and two paintings including one of his famous Saint Francis series and Margaret O'Neill sent a line drawing. On Saturday next, the group will meet for a first view of the collected work, and Franz and Francesca Sandau are bringing two of Franz' new sculptures and several recent paintings by Francesca, as well as a wire construction and a water-color by Jack Morganrauth, who showed at the Pat Wall Gallery under the name Selig. Judith Myrer, the talented young abstractionist who, with her husband the novelist, Tony Myrer, recently came to Big Sur from New York, is finishing a painting especially for the exhibition, and David Tollerton will show a group of his fantastic masks.

The work being done at Big Sur is really extraordinary, the beauty and simplicity of life there seem conducive to original creation and I shouldn't be surprised to find that the artists of the Sur country have started a tradition of their own as the artists in the south of France did. Certainly, seeing the work they have done

Art Assn. Members To Exhibit With New Group March 3

The recently organized New Group, which will hold its first exhibit at the Carmel Highlands residence of Margaret Millard, March 3, has met with an enthusiastic local response. Members of the Carmel Art Association will exhibit along with artists from the Big Sur, Monterey, Carmel Highlands, the Carmel Valley and Huckleberry Hill.

Art Association painters who will exhibit are Richard Lofton, Sam Colburn, Sam Harris, John O'Shea, Ellwood Graham, Barbara Stevenson, Bruce Ariss, Fred Klepich, Mary Miller and Margaret Millard.

Although Ellwood Graham, Barbara Stevenson, Sam Harris and Bruce Ariss constitute the Huckleberry Hill group, they are all members of the Carmel Art Association. Ellwood Graham, Barbara Stevenson and Bruce Ariss have been members for 10 years, and, although Bruce Ariss let his membership lapse while busy with matters other than painting, he recently became active again.

Jean Kellogg and Ephraim Doner from the Carmel Highlands will also exhibit with the New Group, and so will Royden Martin from the Carmel Valley, and Gerald Wasserman and Virginia Blair

Mrs. von Meier, Gordon Campbell To Stand For School Board Election, Harold Nielsen Will Not Run Again

Mrs. Julian von Meier this week announced her intention of running in the May 18 election for the Carmel Unified School District Board of Trustees for one of the two vacancies to be filled at that time.

Trustee Harold Nielsen, who has served in that capacity for the past ten years, will not run again, he told the Pine Cone this week. The other termination will be that of Gordon Campbell, who will run again.

Thus far, Mrs. von Meier is the only candidate to declare such intention, but inasmuch as those desiring to run for office have until April 18 to file intentions, there may be others seeking a post on the board. Election will be on May 18.

Besides Neilson and Campbell, other members are J. O. Handley, Martha Moller and Al Fry.

Supporting Mrs. von Meier's candidacy are Mrs. Mark Raggett, president of the A.A.U.W.; Albert Lester, retired banker; Oscar Balzar, past president of the Carmel Business Association; Mrs. Helen Wilson, Carmel business Association secretary; Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Parker, Mayor Allen Knight, Thomas Elston, Jr., president of the Business Association, Mrs. H. Paul Riebe, president of the League of Women Voters, P. A. McCreery, chairman of the Carmel Planning Commission, and others.

Mrs. Riebe came to Carmel from Berkeley in 1945 and at present has two children in Carmel High School, Karen and Kurt. Another daughter, Mrs. A. Carol McKenney, Jr., is a graduate of Carmel High School. Mrs. Von Meier is president of the Carmel P.T.A. and has been both secretary and treasurer for the high school P.T.A., as well as secretary of the Recreation Commission, treasurer of the Girl Scouts and member of the board of directors of the Carmel Youth Center. She also served as secretary for the redistricting committee at the time of the survey.

Retiring member Neilson told The Pine Cone that he felt 10 years was long enough for any person to serve in such capacity and that he plans to take a vacation from these duties. When he first took office members were Peter Ferrante, the late High

Carmel Unincorp Would Restrict Guest Houses

A proposal which would regulate guest houses in Carmel's outlying districts has been drawn up by Carmel Unincorporated and will be taken before the Monterey County Planning Commission at next Monday's regular meeting in Salinas.

If put into effect by amendment to the present zoning ordinance, kitchens or cooking facilities would be prohibited and guest houses would not be available as separate rental units from the main residence. Only one guest house to each building site would be allowed and that must be placed in the rear of the property. The house would have to be placed in an area not to exceed 30 per cent of the entire property and the building would not be in excess of 12 feet in height. It must also be situated in a spot not closer than five feet from the edge of the property line.

The board of directors of Carmel Unincorporated met Tuesday afternoon to discuss plans for civil defense and certain recommendations will be made at a later time.

Third Annual Lions Club Variety Show To Be Held March 10

The third annual Fashion and Variety Show of the Carmel Lions Club will be held on the evening of March 10 in the recreation hall at Mission Ranch. it was announced this week. Festivities will begin at 8 o'clock.

The fashion show is under the chairmanship of Mark Raggett, and Carmel shops will participate. General chairman for the show is Lloyd Weer.

As those who attended last year's show will remember, the Lions put on entertainment that is jam-packed with fun and merriment. In the variety show, the Lions Chorus will present songs, both old and new, skits and a number of undisclosed vaudeville acts.

Dr. Easton Rothwell To Speak At Sunset About U. S. Defense

Dr. Easton Rothwell, vice chairman of the Hoover Institute and Library, will speak at Sunset Auditorium, Saturday, February 24, at 8 p.m. He has chosen as his topic How Can We Defend the United States. Dr. Rothwell is well qualified to speak on this subject, as he is a close student not only of the United Nations, but of current international trends.

Dr. Rothwell, an authority on the United Nations, has worked closely with that organization since its founding in San Francisco in 1945. He was Executive Secretary of the United Nations Conference for International Organization, popularly known as the San Francisco Conference (April 1945), and subsequently served as Secretary General of the United States Delegation to the United Nations (1945-1946).

YOU HAVE A DATE
APRIL 7

The string, bamboo and paste season has arrived. Kite Festival date has been set for April 7 by Ernest Calley, traditional Carmel kite master. Kids at Sunset shop have started constructing all manner of wonderful and beautiful kites. But they haven't a corner on the fun. As usual, there will be an adult class in the festival, an open invitation to get down on your knees on the living room rug and paste the canasta cards on a frame that will sail handsomely over the athletic field at the high school on April 7.

School Board Says "No" To J. C. District

In executive session the Carmel Unified School District Board said no to participation in a survey toward establishing a Monterey Junior College District.

The board gave the reasons for its decision in the following letter addressed to William Hatton, chairman of the County Reorganization Committee:

After discussion of the problem of calling for a survey to consider the advisability of forming a Peninsula junior college district, we have come to the following conclusions, among others.

1. We do not favor such a survey at this time because of the present law which gives this district only one vote in determining final recommendations; whereas the Monterey Union High School District and its component elementary districts have, we understand, eight votes. The only other district concerned, Pacific Grove Unified, like Carmel, has only one vote.

We have every confidence in the good will of the committee members and in the assurance of the chairman of the Reorganization Committee and the assurance of the representative of the State Department of Education that advantage would not be taken of this situation, but nevertheless believe the present legal provisions are inequitable, in the process of change, and might lead to embarrassment and confusion.

2. We believe the present time is not propitious to begin a movement of this kind. In addition to the reason set forth above, there are several other reasons for this, but the one of most concern to our district is the fact that our own schools are becoming overcrowded and we face a building problem that should be cared for first, before our district assumes further financial obligations at this time.

Because of the preceding reasons, we respectfully request that

KING CITY WINS VARSITY TITLE; PACIFIC GROVE TOPS LIGHTWEIGHTS

Although there is another week of play in the CCAL B division, the first place outcome is all settled. The classy King City varsity quintet has cinched top spot in the heavyweight ranks, and the Pacific Grove Wavelets are a shoo-in for the lightweight crown. It is a race between Pacific Grove and Carmel for the runner-up spot in the varsity division, while Gonzales appears to have second place sewn up in the lightweight class.

Tonight Pacific Grove tangles with Gonzales, Carmel journeys to Boulder Creek, and Hollister takes on the new champs, King City.

King City	8	1	0

KING CITY TOPPLES PADRES IN DOUBLE HEADER

A double dose of bitter defeat was heaped on the Carmel High School basketball teams last Friday night when the King City Mustangs two-timed the red and gray cohorts. The KC lightweights caught fire from the opening whistle and didn't let up until they earned a 31-12 victory. The Padrecitos were ice-cold all through the game and could hit for only a brace of field goals.

With the CCAL B division crown hanging in the balance, the accurate-shooting KC varsity outplayed the Carmel lads all the way. A pair of all-league forwards, Thompson and Milton, combined to riddle the Padre defense and keep the blue and white out in front. Milton, one of the finest cages to show in the Carmel pavilion this season, racked up 16 markers for the Mustangs and did a marvelous job of controling the backboards. Stewart Emery was the shining light for the Padres, playing his finest game of the season. Besides leading the Carmel scorers with eight points, Emery captured a good share of the rebounds and was a leach on defense. Halftime score found the Padres trailing, 20 to 18, and very much in the ball game, but the red-hot Mustangs ran away in the third quarter to coast to a 44-36 final.

THROUGH THE HOOP

Best high school basketball players to perform at the Carmel gym this season—Lawler (Salinas), Beebe (Fremont), LaBrucherie (Morgan Hill), Thompson (King City), and Segovia (Monterey). Would take a mighty fine high-school team to defeat this aggregation. . . . After dropping a pair of league tilts to the good King City squad, the Carmel teams came back strong last Saturday night to upset the Gustine teams in both the lightweight and varsity divisions. Leavitt's unpredictable Babes eked out a 41-40 decision over the Gustine lights, while the red and gray varsity dumped the visitors, 53 to 42. Henry Overin, Carmel's all-league guard, dunked in 21 points for the season's high-scoring effort. . . . A fine basketball duel was staged at Monterey High School last Tuesday afternoon as Monterey's Segovia and Carmel's Overin tested each other. Neither boy sparkled in the scoring department, but their defense against each other bordered on the impossible. Segovia is the finest passer in the CCAL and harried the Padre ball-handlers all afternoon. Overin is considered the best set shot in either division of the CCAL, but the swift Segovia gave him little chance to get set for his favorite shots. Oh, yes, Monterey beat the Carmel varsity, 38 to 31, and the Monterey Babes blasted the Carmel lights in about the same fashion. . . . Look for the 1955 Carmel High School basketball team to be one of the best in the history of the red and gray. Seventh graders from this year's Sunset gang will man the '54 aggregation, and, off their record, in the Youth Center League, they should be unbeatable. These little sprouts have shown skilled team play in all their games and their passing and shooting is above average. . . . Afternoon basketball comes to the Carmel pavilion next Tuesday afternoon as the Hollister Haybalers provide the opposition for the Padres. This 3:30 bill is a make-up of the postponed tilts originally scheduled for February 9. Too much flu bug caused the postponement to next week's date.

FOURTH ANNUAL CARMEL INVITATIONAL BASKETBALL TOURNEY STARTS MARCH 2

Two days of spirited basketball are on tap for Peninsula fans on March 2 and 3 as the annual Carmel casaba clambake is run off at the Carmel gym. Eight schools from three different leagues will square off for the trophies and medals which go to the lucky ones. From the San Joaquin valley comes Patterson, currently leading the tight little valley circuit, and Gustine, a crowd-pleasing ball club with a high-scoring offense. Fremont and Gilroy represent the strong Santa Clara Valley league. Fremont won the 1950 tournament, beating the Carmel Padres in the final tussle. The 1951 edition of the Fremont varsity is nearly on a par with last year's champion and the Indians are rightly the favored team in the tourney. Out of the CCAL comes the 1951 B division champs, King City, Monterey, Pacific Grove, and host Carmel.

Play starts at 4:30 Friday afternoon when King City squares off against Gilroy, at 6 o'clock, the sparkling Monterey five engages the Fremont quintet. Carmel and Patterson take the court at 7:30, with Pacific Grove and Gustine playing the closer at 9 o'clock. Saturday morning at 10 in the morning (ouch), the teams will continue their quest for victory and the final game will get underway at 9 o'clock Saturday night.

VALENTINE'S DAY TOURNAMENT

There was a Mixed Doubles Tennis Tournament at the Pebble Beach Court Valentine's Day, and Mrs. Kent Parrot and Lt. Stanley Abele, U.S.N., were the winners.

Other participants were Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Andrews of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osborne of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Captain and Mrs. George R. Luker, U.S.N., of Del Monte, Miss Mary Virginia Hess of Carmel and Lt. Comdr. Charles Melhorn, U.S.N. of Del Monte, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leonard of Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Draper of the Carmel Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. James Tyson of Carmel Point.

There was also a Valentine's Day tournament for eighth grade girls this week, in which Ann Luker and Patty Ricketts tied with Mary K. Denman and Patsy Field for first place, but, in the play off, it was Ann Luker and Patty Ricketts who took home the chocolate hearts. Other girls who played were Robin McKenney and Judy Silverthrone, Peggy Dougherty and Carol Spiegle, Julie Work and Sarah McCloud, and Judy Wallace and Yvonne Bernadicou.

The next event at the Pebble Beach courts will be a St. Patrick's Day Tournament.

ROCK AND MINERAL SHOW

There will be a rock and mineral show at the YMCA in Salinas the afternoon and evening of February 24, and the afternoon of February 25. Sponsored by the Monterey Mineral Society, it is the fourth annual event of its kind and everyone is invited to come.

Included in the exhibits will be natural specimens, lapidary work, faceted materials, demonsrations of work, jewelry, geiger counters and uranium. There will also be a flouroscent display in which a house cut to scale will be shown under the violet light which gives off a spectacular array of colors. Exhibits from Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Benito Counties and the San Francisco peninsula and San Jose have been promised.

There is no admission fee.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Sometimes Good Intentions Aren't Enough

That fire at the Griffin place didn't do much damage last week, but Volunteer Chief Murphy was pretty angry about it. Spoke to some of us over dinner and a bottle of beer.

"Griffin's farm is a good mile from town," he said. "And by the time we'd dodged all the people on the highway who were going to watch, we hadn't a minute to waste.

"Then blamed if those sightseers hadn't parked cars right in Griffin's driveway and there was a mob of people milling around the house—just gawking. Joe, tell folks a fire's no sideshow. Ask 'em to think of the other fellow!"

From where I sit, some of us need to be reminded occasionally that even though our intentions are good we may be unfairly interfering. Whether it's blocking the right-of-way of fire equipment or criticizing a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer now and then—the American Way is to give way, and give the other fellow his fair "share of the road!"

Jack And Jill Shop Now Operated By Mrs. George Porter

Miss Nancy Brumbridge and Mrs. W. P. Watson sold the Jack and Jill Shop which they had been operating for the past three years to Mrs. George Porter, February 1. Mrs. Porter, who comes from Glendive, Montana, where she and her husband have a thousand-acre wheat ranch, plans to maintain the same line of exclusive children's garments previously sold at the Jack and Jill Shop, but is busy doing some renovating and will also add lots of new stock.

Mrs. Porter took an option on the Jack and Jill Shop a year ago but it was not until this January that the deal was completed. Her husband, George Porter, is still in Montana completing plans to sell the wheat ranch, but will soon join her in Carmel. Mrs. Porter is living in the McKay cottage at Twelfth and Casanova streets. She and Mr. Porter plan to buy a home in Carmel later on.

The Porters have three children living in California. A son, George W. Porter, is a chemical engineer with Johns Madel at Lompoc; their daughter, Mrs. Warren Peters, lives in Marysville with her family; and another daughter, Miss Margaret Peters lives in Menlo Park. Margaret Peters, who is a Stanford graduate, is the business manager of the Sequoia Medical Group in Redwood City.

The Porters have another daughter, Mrs. Walter Harriman, in Kansas City, and a second son, Captain John Porter, who is on duty with the Air Force at Bergstrom Field in Texas. A combat-veteran who flew 83 missions over Germany in a P-47 during the war, Capt. Porter is now flying jets across the country.

Mrs. Watson and Miss Brumbridge are now vacationing in La Jolla. Both English they are hoping to make a trip to Great Britian soon, war conditions permitting.

Monterey College To Sing Requiem At Carmel Mission

On Sunday, March 18, the Monterey Peninsula College chorus will present the Cherubini Requiem Mass in C Minor at 8 o'clock at Carmel Mission. The chorus is under the direction of Dr. Harvey Marshall.

As a part of the Monterey Schools' Spring Music Festival, the high school music department will present its annual concert in the gymnasium at 815 p.m. on March 14. Both the band and chorus will participate.

The elementary schools will present a concert, also in the high school gymnasium on March 15 at 8:15.

Carmel Playhouse Announces Plans For Drama Series

Carmel Playhouse, incorporated, announces that next Tuesday evening, February 27, at the Carmel Girl Scout House, the Golden Bough Players will be re-organized for the season of 1951, under the title of Carmel Players. It is announced that the first plays of the new series will be presented in in Sunset Auditorium, and the remainder in Carmel Playhouse, soon to go into construction. The Playhouse corporation, representing 250 business firm and property owners, will produce and sponsor the play series.

At Tuesday's meeting players, directors and backstage workers from the whole Peninsula will be welcome. In most departments previous experience will not be required. After classification and registration there will be a general discussion of plays and local play production conditions for the ensuing year. Membership in the group, it is stated, will not involve dues or other obligations.

Hunt and Peck

BY BETH INGELS

Dick Sumner reported one morning this week over a cup of coffee that the other day a G. I. from Fort Ord poked his head into his shop down on Ocean Avenue and asked whether or not there was a tatoo parlor in town. Now, for the benefit of those who are new to Carmel, we state emphatically that there is not. Also, that there are many other things common to other towns that Carmel does NOT have. One is a cemetery. To go on from there, neither is there a mausoleum, crematorium, funeral parlor or dog burial grounds. (There was, however, an Indian burial ground down near the Mission, many, many years ago.) There is no pool hall here, although the Youth Center has pool tables. There is not a public shooting gallery, although the Carmel Pistol Club meets each week. There have never been any commercial circuses or carnivals here, although there have been local talent affairs to raise funds for community projects. There is no mail delivery to residences, although people receive letters every day. Lads and lassies roam the streets in fair weather in shorts and swimming outfits, although a city ordinance prohibits them from entering bars in such garb. There are no hot dog concessions (or any other kind, for that matter) on the beach, although the most popular spot in town on warm days is that beautiful stretch of clean white sand. So . . . if you are the kind of person who thinks that Carmel would be improved by adding these things to the town, Carmel is not the place for you!

Oh dear, oh dear, was there anyone in Carmel who didn't have a mild taste of spring fever on Tuesday? It seemed only sensible to do any one of many things that afternoon . . . go to the beach, take a quiet, leisurely walk around Point Lobos, drive up the Valley to see the beginnings of the spring wildflowers . . . anything, but work. Incidentally, poppies are now out, as are buttercups, shooting stars and others, for those who may be interested in this sort of thing.

Street Superintendent William Askew will be instructed by McCreery to see what can be done about the matter.

Mrs. Kiplinger stated that the condition of some of the pines is "deplorable." "We become greatly emotional when one live tree is removed here, and yet we do nothing about the ones standing. Dead branches should be removed," she said, and added that cutting off dead branches does not harm the tree, but, instead gives it added strength. McCreery will talk with Askew to determine whether or not a city crew could be used if work were supervised by a qualified expert on the matter.

Plans for an additional building at the Wilder & Jones property on San Carlos were submitted, and were approved with minor changes, as were also plans for remodeling the Schweninger building on Ocean avenue occupied by the Derek Rayne shop.

The meeting was the annual one and McCreery was re-elected chairman and Peter Mawdsley secretary. Chester Lewis, new member, was welcomed by the group. The meeting was adjourned until next Wednesday afternoon.

American Friends To Hold Regional Meeting Tomorrow

A regional meeting of the American Friends Service Committee will be held at the Carmel Girl Scout House tomorrow. The meeting is in two sections, one at four in the afternoon and the other at 7:30. Chairman will be Russell Jorgensen, Foreign Service Secretary in the San Francisco office.

Janet Barber, faculty member of Salinas High School, will speak on her three years as a volunteer worker in Mexico and will show colored slides. Mohammed Mehdi, from Iran, will speak about the International Service Seminar. Other speakers will be Scott Zumwalt, who participated in the A.F.S.C. camp held last summer in the Ozarks, and Josephine W. Duveneck, widely known educator.

There will be a potluck supper at 6:00 o'clock.

E. F. Slater

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning for E. F. Slater, 65, who died Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Turner, Jr., following a long period of failing health.

Mr. Slater had resided in Carmel for the past seven months, and before coming here was engaged for many years in agricultural work near Woodland.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Clarice Slater of Carmel; two sons, Bill S. Slater of Indepeñdence and James Arthur Slater with the U. S. Navy; a brother, W. B. Slater of Salida and three sisters, Mrs. Edna McCarthy of Sausalito, Mrs. Margaret Schooling of Napa and Mrs. Eva Gill of Red Bluff and two grandchildren.

Paul's Mortuary was in charge of arrangements and burial was in El Carmelo Cemetery.

Mrs. O'Neill Visiting

Mrs. David O'Neill, the mother of Barbara O'Neill, the movie actress, is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Horton Blackman on Monte Verde street. She is also the sister of Miss Elsa Blackman.

Mrs. O'Neill, who resides in Greenwich, Connecticut, plans to stay about six weeks.

Documentary Film On Scandinavia To Be Shown March 4

Curtis F. Nagel, photographer and lecturer, will present a color film on Sweden, Norway and Denmark on Sunday evening, March 4, at Sunset Auditorium under the auspices of the San Francisco Town Hall, in association with Alice Seckels.

The film portrays the beauty of these three countries and with personal narration will take one through the fjords, and the water falls, churches and historic cities and villages.

Tickets may be obtained at the Browse-Around Shop in Carmel, Abinante's in Monterey or by addressing Alice Seckels, Box 643, Carmel.

Capt. Jones Awarded Oak Leaf Cluster

Captain Jean K. Jones, a former Carmel resident, was recently awarded the second oak leaf cluster to the Air Medal, it was learned this week. The award was made at a formal review held at Clark Air Force Base in Central Luzon.

Captin Jones, a pilot, has been with the United States Air Force in the Philippines since last May, and has now been assigned as a photographic officer for the 6204th Photo Mapping Flight, Philippines Command, and Thirteenth Air Force on Clark Air Force Base.

Mrs. Jones and the three little girls, Debohrah, Jean and Sara, are with Capt. Jones in the Philippines.

Contract Awarded For Santa Catalina School For Girls

Construction of the new high school class room and dormitory for the Santa Catalina School for Girls will begin immediately, it was announced this week, with the bid for the contract awarded to F. V. Hampshire of Salinas. Architect is Leonard Starks of Sacramento.

The exterior of the buildings will be early California in design, although the interior will be ultra-modern. The new building will enable the school to take students from the first grade through senior class in high school. The dormitory will provide housing for 40 additional students. It is planned to complete the buildings in time for the fall semester.

Said Riza To Talk On Painting At Carmel Gallery

Said Riza, who teaches Turkish at the Army Language School, will sepak at the Carmel Art Association Galleries Friday night, March 2 on Painting as a Language. Mr. Riza will attempt to show how different artists—from Old Masters down to the Post-Impressionists—used different methods in saying what they had to say.

Riza has been living on the Peninsula for the past three years, is a Harvard graduate, and, although born in Turkey, is an American citizen. He has had a varied background including dramatic production in radio in New York, and is an authority on art as well as on languages.

He recently had a one-man show of paintings at the Virginia Blair studios on the Monterey wharf.

The lecture, which will commence at 8:15 p.m., is free, but everyone interested in attending is warned that the gallery will only seat 90 people, so the seats will go to those who arrive first.

The Time Has Come

By Kippy Stuart

Norvell Gillespie is known nationally as The Boy Wonder.

Norvell also enjoys other nomkers such as The Galloping Gardener and the Flying Gardener. Just to take a look at Norvill's schedule makes the head swim. You will think he is here and suddenly his voice will come to you over the air from away off yonder. Norvell does such casual things as fly to Europe on a moment's notice to confer with international horticulturists. He spent the month of August last year flitting about the continent, France, Holland, England, making all-time records of outstanding gardens with his handy color camera.

He was no more back from Europe, when away he went again, hopping the Atlantic just like that. It seems that the personalities whom he contacted in Europe on his first trip needed once again the enormous vitality that Norvell exudes. All the time that Norvell was absent from America, his voice remained with us, for his regular radio program at 9:15 each morning, carried on. Can you imagine a person having the vitality to prepare weeks of transcriptions in advance? Material of this kind must adhere to the calendar as week by week, garden advice fluctuates.

He made such an impression abroad, and carried with him such good will, that now, our own country has summoned The Boy Wonder. Norvell Gillespie was selected by the Department of Agriculture in Washington, to sit in on the planning for National gardens. There is a very wise movement afoot now for the home gardener to return to the vegetable patch. Thank goodness we don't have to go through all the pep talks of Victory gardens and have thrust upon us the urge to be patrotic. Nothing like that. The new home vegetable garden is on the economic scale. Select a very small plot in your yard, and do not let first ambition overwhelm you. Keep it small, and plant wisely; a few feet of carrots, another small section of lettuce, one of onions or beets: 10 or 15 days later, repeat this proceedure, and you will have a constantly producing food patch.

Norvell gave me this advice recently and it sounds practical. The home gardener gets full of ginger and ambition when spring rolls around. He thinks big and plants big. Soon, he finds his garden a mill stone around his neck and the usual results is an abandoned vegetable garden overrun with weeds.

Last summer I had great difficulty raising gladiolus. The green foliage yellowed, the bulbs rotted. I sprayed, I fertilized. No results. I S.O.S'ed Norvell and almost before the letter reached Burlingame, his home, the Galloping gardener was at my door. He wandered through my sad looking gladiolus garden, didn't do any digging or head scratching. His diagnosis was on the instant, and better than that, the cure was immediate. Before planting bulbs of any kind, especially gladiolus, dip the bulbs in the powdered form of lindane-isitox. My second crop of gladiolus were perfect.

If you want a liberal education in horticulture, with no effort on your part, listen each week day at 9:15 a.m. to station KSBW, 1380 on your radio dial., and Norvell Gillespie will inspire you to garden action.

Popular Youngsters To Model For AWVS Spring Fashion Show

The American Woman's Volunteer Service Fashion Show luncheon which is scheduled for Tuesday, February 27, at Del Monte Lodge, will have among its models, many popular local youngsters.

Those who will appear in spring fashions for children from the Fairy Frock Shop are Miss Anne McKeever, the daughter of Mrs. Alma Walker McKeever of Pebble Beach; Charles and Susan Osborne, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osborne of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club; Mr. and Mrs. Edison A. Holt of the Carmel Valley; Miss Suzette Garin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Garin, Jr., of Pebble Beach; Mary Jane and Tommy Leutzinger, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Leutzinger of Pebble Beach; Freddie and Penny Seely, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Seely of Pebble Beach; Miss Gail Ann da Roza, daughter of Mrs. Lucille S. Da Roza of Pebble Beach; Miss Wendy Burnham, daughter of Mrs. A. Carol McKenney of Pebble Beach; and Miss Janice Meyenberg, the daughter of Mrs. Clyde N. Young of Salinas.

Also modelled at the show will be adult fashions from the Carolyn [illegible] spring collection. Proceeds of the luncheon and fashion show will go towards the new AWVS arts and crafts program of which Mrs. Robtrt Aurner, Carmel artist, is chairman.

[illegible] are being handled by Mrs. L. B. Carey of Carmel who is being assisted by a large committee of AWVS members. Her telephone number is 7-3151. Tickets can also be obtained at the Caroline Kelsey Shop and the Fairy Frock Shop. Table reservations for the luncheon can be made at Del Monte Lodge.

In charge of arrangements for the gala affair is Mrs. Richard L. Bower of Pebble Beach, who is the chairman of the local AWVS group.

FIREBALL POWERED

Want more THRILL per dollar?

WHAT are the things you hope some day to have in an automobile?

Is it power that rises to every challenge?

Is it the satisfied feeling of being a very important person there at the wheel?

Is it day-long comfort and ample dimensions that make every trip a pleasure?

Is it the durable goodness of sound construction – the sturdy strength that will outlast the years?

Well, sir, the time has come for you to take to heart these three words of sensible advice—"SMART BUY'S BUICK."

Every Buick has Fireball power – an exclusive combustion principle that makes each drop of fuel do extra duty.

Every Buick has coil springs on all four wheels – that add to your comfort and never need service.

Every Buick can be had with Dynaflow Drive,* which lends extra smoothness to all the miles you drive and saves wear on tires, engine and transmission for long-run economy.

Every Buick sparkles with added conveniences, refinements, appointments that lift these 1951 beauties far above the "utility" level and make them a special joy to own.

And when it comes to price—we ask you to compare Buick with the field. Come see us soon. Lots of folks are comparing and finding there's no buy like a Buick.

Standard equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

* Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

No other car provides all this:

DYNAFLOW DRIVE—saves strain on driver and car

FIREBALL POWER—high-compression, valve-in-head engine gets more good from every drop of fuel

PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT—combines smart style and unsurpassed protection

WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS—greater clarity at night

TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE—steadies ride, improves driving control

4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING cushions ride, saves servicing costs

SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES—hydraulic—multiply pedal-pressure five times at brake drum

DREAMLINE STYLING—tapered, car-length fenders, gleaming sweep-spears on most models

Plus: Self-locking luggage lid, StepOn parking brake, two-way ignition lock, Safety-Ride rims, Hi-Poised engine mounting, Body by Fisher

Save Your Jobless Pay!

BY RUSS GRAHAM

(Ed. Note: This is the eighth of a series of 10 special articles.)

If California's rapidly-diminishing unemployment insurance reserve fund is to be saved, the 1951 state legislature must produce a correction of the "voluntary quit" racket.

Otherwise, an annual expenditure of unemployment insurance funds estimated at $25,000,000 or more, in benefit payments to "voluntary quits," will continue to deplete the fund—and hasten the day when there will be no funds for unemployment insurance payments.

To understand the remedy, it is necessary to understand the present law which permits "a quit for good cause."

"Good cause" is not defined in the act. Therefore, it is determined by each claims examiner for the commission if the cause given by the claimant is good cause.

The original intent of the legislature was that good cause should relate to matters directly connected with a person's work.

For example, if a person was working where conditions affected his health because of an allergy, it would be good cause if he quit because of his health, if backed up by a physician's statement. But he should be willing to take the same kind of a job elsewhere where conditions would not be an menace.

Also, an accident or advancing age might make it impossible for him to continue a particular job, although able to do other work.

Because the reasons for voluntary quits are not defined, trivial and even nonsensical reasons are given by chiselers and such reasons apparently satisfy some examiners.

But even if the examiner decides the worker did not quit for good cause, the worker is disqualified for only five weeks, after which he can draw unemployment insurance.

This unemployment insurance is charged to the employer's individual reserve fund and to the general (which the employers pay even though the claimant is not involuntarily unemployed and is not a bonafide member of the labor market.)

It is proposed that "good cause" be strictly limited to matters directly relating to the employee's work.

It is proposed that the applicant be disqualified for refusal to accept suitable work that he can do, even though it is not exactly what he would like.

It is proposed that the applicant be disqualified for making willful misstatements to obtain benefits.

Instead of the disqualification period being only five weeks, as at present, it is proposed that the disqualification shall continue until the worker shall have earned wages in re-employment equal to at least 10 times his weekly benefit, and thereafter meets with the eligibility requirements of the act.

It is proposed to deny benefits and to cancel wage credits of any person convicted by any court of competent jurisdiction of willfully making a false statement or knowingly failing to disclose a material fact in order to obtain or increase any benefit or payment under the provisions of the act.

It is proposed to require cooperation by employers, which cooperation will have the effect of helping employers to protect the fund and in consequence, their own financial resources.

When a worker leaves without good cause or "voluntary quits," the employer would be required to furnish such material facts as are necessary to prove this, when requested by the commission.

The same would apply when a worker has been discharged or temporarily suspended for misconduct connected with his most recent work.

These changes in the law, it is believed, will

RITUAL OF SNOW

Where kneels the cloud on Santa Lucia height
Intent upon some ritual of its own,
The wind has folded down its wings from flight
To leave the suppliant and the saint alone.

She takes the soul, so grey and full of night
So helpless to obliterate its stain,
And draws a veil to hide from mortal sight
The penitent so weighted down with pain.

Communion is the essence of the hour
A mood of sacrament; a holy air
An atmosphere wherein a sacred power
Weaves into sanctity the web of prayer.

The cloud arises reverently, and lo!
The fallen burden lies: a robe of snow!

—DANIEL HAWTHORNE.

SEASON RAINS

Like a tender firstling calling,
April rain comes gently falling;
Humming, crooning melodies
To the flowers, grass and trees.

Half a whisper, half a tremble,
Chary, timid drops assemble;
Scarcely knowing how they settle
On everything from eaves to petal.

With a matron's rush and tattle,
Seeking favor, feigning battle—
Summer showers spill their riches
Into flower-cup and ditches.

Spreading over plain and mountain,
Adding life to spring and fountain;
Humming tunes of reckless treasure,
Giving promise beyond measure.

Like a hussy grumbling, prying,
Autumn rains come fretting, crying;
Carving wrinkles, causing traces,
On but late-beloved places.

Drenching meadow, street and garden
With a deluge scorning pardon;
Proving more than just a hinter
Of approaching snow and winter.

—JACK GREENHILL.

DESERTED WOOD

The nestless trees are without sound,
Their arms hang limp and still,
No feet stir the untidy ground
Stained with the seasons' spill.

The birds are hidden or are late,
No wing opens, I hear
No squirrel scolds, and though I wait
I cup a useless ear.

I waken echoes in a wood
When no one else is there,
In full possession where Pan stood,
And god-like, breathe his air.

—ALEX R. SCHMIDT.

New Volumes . . .

It was a mild morning in September when Dr. Donald Powell Wilson reported in at the Leavenworth penitentiary for directed research in drug-addiction and its relation to crime at the request of the United States Public Health Service. He received his orders at the college where he was a professor of psychology, and these papers gave him an extremely limited time to close his affairs there, pack and get to the open road which would lead him to his destination.

His experiences there, which took three years, are recorded in a fascination book, My Six Convicts, published by Rhinehart and Company and made available to The Pine Cone through the kindness of Miss Edith Griffin at the Village Book Shop. The volume is a current Book-of-the-Month Club selection.

The health service gave no indication of how to proceed with his research and he was more or less on his own from the beginning. He was promised help from the warden who admitted that even after 40 years of penitentiary experience he still knew little "about the insides of a criminal." "What's more," he told Dr. Wilson, "I'm suspicious of any cop who says he does. It's not much of a step from cop to con sometimes, you know."

Dr. Wilson named the tests he would use—intelligence, personality, aptitude, the Rorschach Psydiognostic, the Willoughby Emotional Maturity Scale and others.

In his work he was given professional immunity, which meant exactly what it does in the cases of chaplains and doctors. He was not to report anything irregular and he was not to be a stool pigeon unless he wanted to be a clay pigeon. The prison grapevine had already received news of his arrival, much to his surprise, and the men there knew of his coming before the warden did.

The six men Dr. Wilson finally selected for his research are given fictitious names and a great many of the experiences during his years there were not only illuminating but extremely humorous. Like the time the men took an interest in gardening and planted flowers in sections where they were allowed. It took prison officials some time to realize that neatly growing along with the petunias and such were healthy marijuna plants.

In addition to being an exciting human-interest story, Dr. Wilson has also produced a convincing piece of scientific research which will instruct you in many details of the so-called criminal mind you never knew before. He is currently teaching psychology at Los Angeles State College and is the author of a text on Psychotherapy and Counseling, to be published soon, and co-author with Lewis Terman of Psychological Factors in Marital Happiness.

In one section, he writes: "Some of the best hangovers in the world are acquired in a penitentiary. Under pressure of time and secrecy, the kitchen crew could brew some of the world's most potent alchol in one day. All we could ever learn was that this alcohol was made of raisins, potato skins, yeast and some undivulged chemical. A baccanalia was most likely to occur on a holiday when the privations of prison life were most keenly felt. New Year's Day was a natural for one of these festivals.

"On one New Year, the kitchen crew with this powerful bootleg on their palates turned into whirling dervishes and cavorted through the storeroom and empty mess hall in a mad revel. The dancers, hallucinated themselves to be flower girls, tossing cornflake petals into the air until they were dancing ankle-deep in them. When the supply of cornflakes diminished, the ballet became more realistic: the dancers began tossing cans of condensed soup and milk instead of cornflakes, with an incidental decrease in the number of nymphs participating. Their marksmanship was deadly.

"Solo dancers performed on barrels and tables,

How to make good telephone service even better...

Give 'em time to answer
How many times have you answered the telephone just as someone hangs up? You know it's not always possible to get to the telephone the moment it rings. So best way to make sure you get the person you're calling is to give him a full minute to answer.
Good way to stretch your telephone dollar
When you make a Long Distance call, you can get the most for your money if, ahead of time, you make notes of the things you want to talk about. Then, during your call, jot down the things you want to make sure to remember. With the right planning, you can say as much in a three-minute call as in an exchange of letters. And did you know you can make a three-minute station call, clear across the country, for just $2.00, plus tax, after six in the evening.

When you take the kinks out of your telephone cord, you help protect your own service. For too many twists may break some of the tiny wires in the cord, causing you to hear a "frying" noise. Let the receiver unwind by itself . . . then keep the curls out by remembering not to put a turn in the cord as you handle the receiver.

Peggy Page Wed Saturday

Peggy Page was married to Eugenio Dan Hodel at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Page, on Carmel Point Saturday afternoon. The ceremony, which was attended by over 150 guests, was conducted by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray.

The bride wore a formal white wedding gown of net and lace with a long net train, and on her head a short veil with a half-crown of daphne. In her hands she carried a bridal bouquet of white stock and white camellias.

Her maid-of-honor, Miss Nancy Keegan, of Omaha, Nebraska, appeared in a dress of green net and carried pale pink snapdragons.

Howard Schless, a Yale graduate, was best man.

The living room of the Page home was beautifully decorated with an altar formed by white stock and greenery, and in the patio there was a great bouquet of calla lilies. Potted plants also graced the patio, around the festive bride's table.

The bride and groom, who met in Paris while Peggy was working with the ECA and Eugenio was employed in the textile printing business, plan to remain in the United States until Eugenio's visa is up. Then they will leave for Europe and make their home either in France or in Switzerland.

The new Mrs. Hodel is a University of California graduate and is the niece of Mrs. Ray Schumacker of Carmel and of Mrs. J. F. Van Lobel Sels of Monterey. Her husband, who is a graduate of Basle, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hodel of Zurich, Switzerland.

"Scouts' Own" Program

There will be a meeting at 4:00 p.m., Sunday, February 25 of all Girl Scout troops on the Monterey Peninsula, including Brown Scouts and their leaders, parents and friends at Pacific Grove Auditorium. The occasion is an inspirational program called "Scouts' Own".

In addition to troops from Carmel, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Seaside and Marina, the Carmel Valley Troop will attend. It is hoped that attendance will be 100 per cent.

The ceremony, in which the girls will renew their promises as Girl Scouts and speak of the Girl Scout laws, will stress the dreams and ideas of Juliette Low, who was the founder of scouting in the United States.

Each troop will make a contribution to the Juliette Low Fund.

Gala Prevue At Blair Studios

The prevue of the Margaret Millard and Jack Case show at the Blair studios last Friday night was well attended.

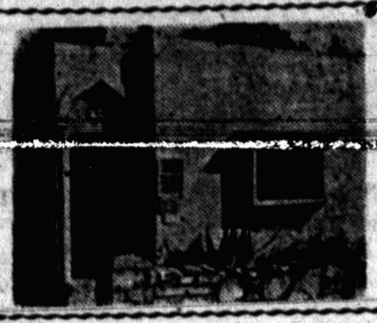

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank La Fontaine, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Franke, Jack Case, Mr. and Mrs. Neville Cramer and Pierrot Cramer, Sam Colburn, Mrs. Dorothy Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lofton, Mr. and Mrs. Howell Armor, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ariss, and Bruce, Jr., Robert Buckner, Dan Totheroh, Mr. and Mrs. Hernan Cabrera, Miss Ruth Zinn, Mr. and Mrs. Efraim Doner, Mrs. E. Nerve center of P.G. and E. is this giant control board in Oakland where Larry Lafrenz, with P.G. and E. 36 years, guides the flow of over 4 million horsepower. When trouble strikes, Larry's board tells him instantly. By telephone he can cut in or out any power source in the whole system so that repairs can be quickly made and power kept steadily flowing.

Meet George Kritsky, who operates one of the 150 P.G. and E. mobile radio units. By means of these radio units installed in service trucks and cars, P.G. and E. men can maintain instant, direct two-way communication with their headquarters. Thus repairs are often made with no loss of service.

Meet P.G. and E.'s
storm fighters

When snow chokes the canyons, rain floods the valleys and wind howls through the cities, P.G. and E. people go on a 24-hour alert to guard your heat and light. That's quite a job: 55,500 miles of power lines to check, 13,500 miles of gas pipe to watch, to say nothing of the home and factory installations of 2½ million customers who live in an area of 89,000 square miles. Now we'd like to have you meet some of our storm fighters and learn of some of the things they do to back up the motto: "You can depend on P.G. and E."

Lewis Kincheloe and his helper, Bob Webster, are "hot line" men in our San Joaquin Power Division. They work on lines carrying as high as 220,000 volts. It takes 620 trained linemen to maintain P.G. and E.'s 55,500 miles of power lines.

P·G·and·E·
PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

Ernest Smith, line patrolman of Concord, an "old timer" at P.G. and E., is typical of the men throughout the system who are ready, day or night, storm or snow, to rush to the source of trouble.

POINT LOBOS RESERVE

We have had so many inquiries of late, concerning the "shrub with the blue blossoms" that we answer the question before it is completely asked, for we know what the question is before it is entirely out of the speaker's mouth.

For this reason and the fact that many plants are unseasonally in full bloom, it seems appropriate to make this the third of our wildflower articles.

There are some 40 species of this particular shrub known botanically as Ceanothus. Variations occur in the foliage, flower, and over-all form of the plant. Some are white-blossomed; others blue. Ours at Point Lobos are of one species, and with one variety. Collectively the shrub is known as wild lilac and we have the one, (Ceanothus thrysiflorus), which is commonly called blue blossom.

I don't believe a full description is necessary because it is one of our most common wild shrubs, however, a brief account of its characteristics may be of interest. In some localities the shrub may be short and sprawling, while in more protected situations it sometimes reaches small-tree proportions. Mature leaves of Blue Blossom are evergreen, smooth and shiny with the under surfaces minutely hairy. The flowers, blue, (usually), as its name implies, are pleasingly fragrant, as any visitor along our grove trail can verify. Single flowers are arranged similar to the old garden variety of lilac. There is a touch of yellow evident on close inspection.

An interesting thing about the green fruit is its properties which make it a suitable substitute for soap. Crushed and rubbed in the hands with water it lathers quite well. The flowers are a disappointment should one be so unkind as to think of taking a bouquet, for like so many of our wild flowers, they drop their blossoms almost on picking. Fortunately, most people prefer to leave the elegant blossom attached to the shrub where all who come may enjoy.

Point Lobos Ceanothus is the blue blossom, thrysiflorus. The variety of this species is griseus, but let's not be too concerned over these two kinds for it is so similar as to permit the botanist only to separate. You will, however, see in the areas adjacent to Point Lobos other species that you may like to inquire about. All Ceanothus are commonly named Wild Lilac.

Calvin Flint Discusses Korea For Woman's Club

Calvin Flint, president of the Monterey Peninsula College, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Book Section of the Carmel Woman's Club Monday, February 19. Introduced by Mrs. Benjamin Johnson, chairman of the Book Section, Mr. Flint spoke on the subject of International Understanding.

In discussing our "lack of understanding", Mr. Flint stressed the effectiveness of Russia in North Korea and the ineffectiveness of our efforts in South Korea.

"This may be predicated to the historical background of Korea, dominated by Japan since 1925. She kept the landlord government. We supported that regime. True, we held democratic elections, but in doing so we tried to establish a form of political democracy. Democracy is of three types: political, social and economic. In North Korea, the Russians, by means of land reforms, redistributed the land and changed the social economy".

Flint cited similar conditions in China, the Philippines and Germany which resulted from our not understanding the situation from the economic viewpoint.

In summation he suggested several solutions for the present dilemma: Hoover's plan of "pulling out"; the United Nations; or the United States alone.

"Today with the United Nations, possibly we are the leaders to step in where there is any kind of strife or aggression."

He closed his talk by giving a list of books which he termed "excellent books to awaken us to the action of Communism." Among those cited were Red Masquerade by Angela Calomeris; Seeds of Treason by Whittaker Chambers; The God that Failed by Richard Crossman; Know Your Isms by Martin Dodge; Ideas and Men by C. C. Brinton; A Nation of Nations by Louis Adamic; Policy for the West from the East by Richard Lauterbach; the Case of the Enigmatic Caesar by John Gunther; and Half of One World by Foster Hailey.

Following Mr. Flint's talk, tea was served by chairman Mrs. Victor B. McCrea who was assisted by Mrs. Ethel M. Taggart and Mrs. John S. King. Mrs. King was also responsible for the flower arrangements. Mrs. Fenton Grigsby and Mrs. H. Paul Riebe poured.

The next meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club will feature colored movies and stills of local gardens and garden shows by Mr. and Mrs. Noel Arnold of Pebble Beach.

REGISTRATION CLOSES AT THE COLLEGE

The last day that students may register for credit at the Monterey Peninsula College is Monday, Feb. 26, according to Harold Parker, Dean of Student Personnel. Students enrolling at this late date will be permitted to take a limited program, Parker stated. Students who plan to enroll after Feb. 26 will be permitted to do so only on an adult basis.

Carmel High Band And Chorus To Be In Music Festival

The Carmel High band and chorus will participate tomorrow at the annual Coast Counties Honor Concert to be presented at the King City High School auditorium at eight o'clock. Ten other high schools in this district will participate, including Monterey and Pacific Grove.

The Carmel High School groups are under the direction of John Farr, head of the music department here. Members of the chorus are: Paula Schneeberger, Kathy Seiple, Carol Stewart, Diane Lewis, Jo Evelyn Albee, Jim Moran, Sylvester Burger, Leslie Doolittle, Bill Burke and John Edmunds. Band members are: Donna Douglas, Mavis Jones, Bablo Palick, Tom McGlynn and John King.

Chorus director at the festival will be Dr. Roy Freeburg of San Francisco State College, while band leader will be Elwin Schwartz of FMresno State College.

Rehearsal will be held during the day tomorrow in preparation for the night's concert. The band will have 117 pieces, while the members of the chorus will number 160 in all. Participating high schools besides Carmel will be: Monterey, Pacific Grove, Hollister, Boulder Creek, Gilroy, Gonzales, King City, Salinas, Santa Cruz and Watsonville.

Teresa Whiteside Doing Column For Desert Newspaper

Teresa Whiteside, who formerly lived at the Big Sur and before that had a home in the Valley, has been writing a by-lined news column for the Palm Springs Desert Sun since before Christmas.

She has also given two recent public color slide shows of desert flowers, sunrises, and scenery at Desert Hot Springs, and she is on the schedule of the Palm Springs Museum to give an illustrated lecture at the Frances Stevens School in Palm Springs Saturday, March 3.

In addition to her photographic work, Mrs. Whiteside is busy studying oil-painting with the artist, Louis Krupp.

CLARA SCHULTTER'S CAR DEMOLISHED IN ACCIDENT

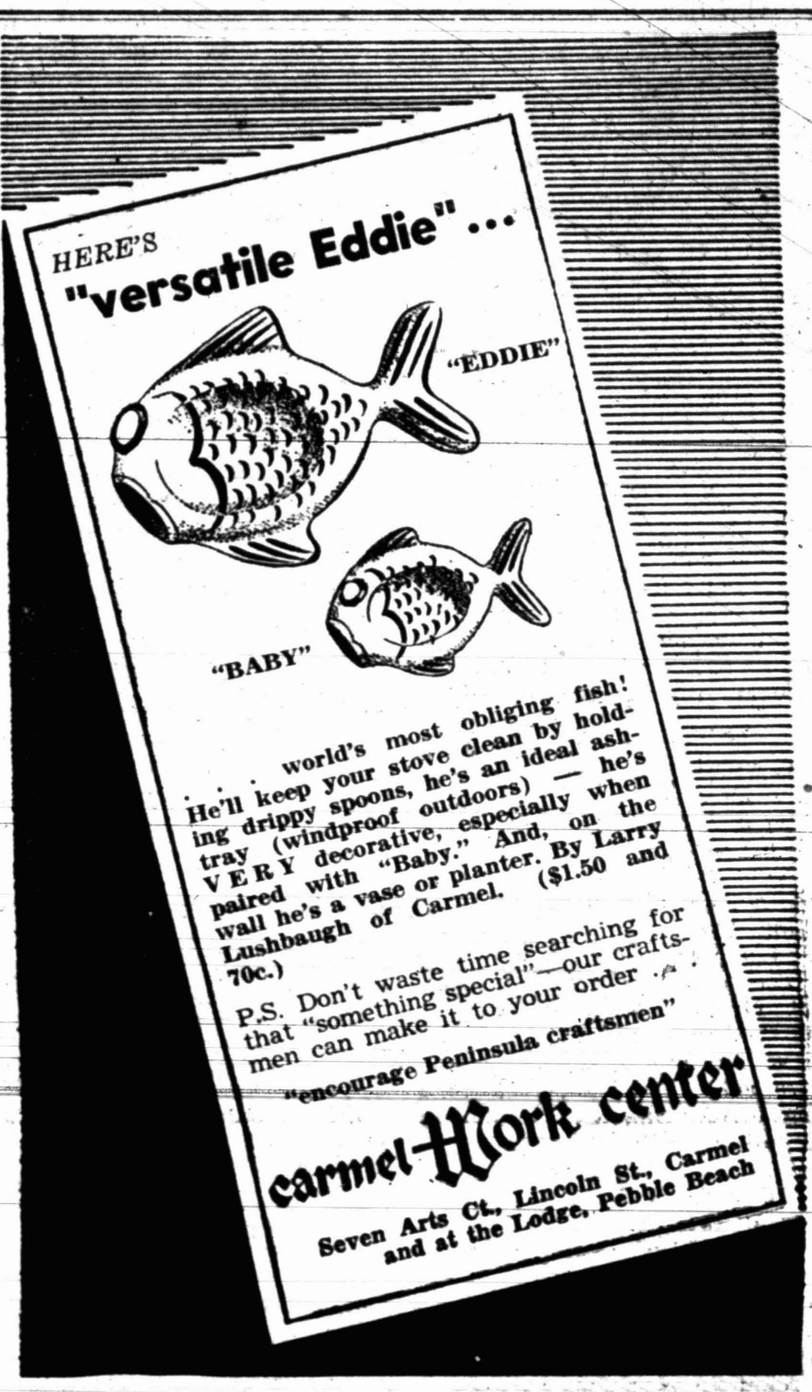

Clara Schultter, a student at the Carmel Art Institute, had a serious accident Saturday on her way back from San Francisco where she had gone to visit a sick friend. At the intersection of Highway 101 and 56, her brand-new Cadillac skidded, turned over and over and the rear end was completely demolished.

Miraculously, however, the windshield glass was not broken and Miss Schultter escaped injury.

GIRL SCOUTS GIVEN GAS RANGE WORTH $200

The Girl Scouts issued an appeal several weeks ago for an inexpensive gas range for your condition. They were willing to buy it, but Mrs. Alice Ayres came to the rescue with a beautiful, 31-year-old gas range in excellent condition which she gave to them. The range is worth $200.

So now the Girl Scouts have enough money left in their renovating fund to put linoleum on the kitchen floor.

At HARRIET DUNCANS, Sixth and Lincoln Street, I found the perfect costume to look pretty in, day after day. The huge flounced skirt needs no pressing, just wrap it around a broom stick to dry and all the little pleats come out crisp and starchy. The matching blouse has long sleeves and a high victorian yoke trimmed with rows of frills. Gay and charming in rose sprigged calico on a white, black or red ground, this dress will give a festive air to even the grayest morning, the small price, $24.95. To wear and treasure for years, Miss Duncan has a magnificent collection of hand made belts emblazoned with rare coins and crests imported from France and Switzerland. One belt, in purple leather with golden lions heads carries a tiny perfume flask on a chain. These may not be easy to find again. Prices start at $5.95 and the variety of colours is infinite.

At THE CARMEL TROPIC SHOP, on 5th and Mission, I found many inspired ideas, to transform your house for spring. To decorate a terrace, or to change the look of a room with a screen of living green, they have bamboo trellis for climbing vines and tall plants, or to use alone as a decorative partition. The section, 47 by 66 inches, $17.50. Original watercolours of exotic flowers, exquisitely painted by Hawaiian artists, set on raffia and framed in bamboo are $9.95, complete. Admiring a long divan, by Tropitan, with deeply tufted seat and back and brilliant upholstery, I discovered that one simple movement converts it into a double bed. The handsome rattan base holds linen and blankets and the upholstery is completely water repellent. Here, at long last is the beautiful solution for a double purpose room. In your choice of vivid colours, $169.95. Polished rattan and heavy frosted glass are combined in a graceful table, perfect for summer dining, $38.50. The matching, cane seated chairs are $18.75. When you visit THE CARMEL TROPIC SHOP, be sure to see their extraordinary leaf and flower prints, available in yardage or made up into slip covers to fit Tropitan furniture, and their large collection of beautiful and unusual lamps.

Entertaining can look a bit formidable with prices still soaring, but MAC'S POULTRY MARKET, San Carlos and 5th Street, has the answer. Why not serve a delicious casserole of chicken and mushrooms in white wine? Separate pieces, wings, backs and necks are fine for this and only 35 cents a pound, and MAC'S has a special on legs and thighs at 6 for [illegible]. Large coloured Fryers and plump Roasters and Broilers as well as new laid Ranch eggs are always available at MAC'S POULTRY MARKET.

The charming Hadley ash trays are justly famous, but have you seen the enchanting set of Hadley dishes now on display at O'KEEFFE'S on Dolores Street? The farmer and his wife, the farm house, barn and attendant animals, including the very nicest cow I've ever seen, are gaily painted on fine large dishes. The water cooler, samovar style, would also be perfect for iced lemonade or punch. Tall mugs, a big pot for coffee or chocolate, oversize plates, even the salt and pepper shakers are done on a generous scale. Perfect for country living, this ware is not expensive. In her tall white candelabra, which hold flowers as well as candles, and her filagree fruit bowls, the Swiss artist Marguerite Linck-Daepp, who lives on a farm with a great many geese, has combined rusticity with elegance. Also from Switzerland. O'KEEFFE'S has a superb group of Meister Ware, decorated with exquisite flowers, thistles and shells, delicate as a fifteenth century engraving.

Spray your bugs before they wake up! THE GARDENER'S FRIEND, Fifth between San Carlos and Mission, has a wonderful little gadget called the Flika-Dusta which directs an accurate spray of insecticide dust exactly where you want it with just a flick of the wrist. For expert advice on all your gardening needs see THE GARDENER'S FRIEND.

After a long day, it's very nice to take leave of the outside world and indulge in the wonderful custom of looking beautiful at home. The Lingerie Department on the second floor at HOLMAN'S has a fabulous collection of hostess gowns with a Renaissance look, in luxurious fabrics lighted with flashing jewels. A great quilted robe of black velvet lined in red faille and embroidered with a gold and turquoise crest, has a Venetian grandeur. Another, in moss green velvet buttons with rhinestones, pockets turn back to reveal chartreuse satin lining. These are $35. A black velvet top, gold embroidered plaid forming its lapels and full skirt, would grace the mos formal dinner table, $39.95. A directoire robe of heavy sea green satin with a dull shantung finish has great elegance at a modest price, $29.95. More intimate, and quite heavenly, is a full, high necked, long sleeved negligee of translucent white nylon tricot, exquisitely detailed, with it's own Empire gown, $35.00. Another nylon Tricot, pale blue simply cut and edged with net is one of the loviest things for a young girl I've ever seen, $19.95. There are many more, see them at HOLMAN'S.

Some forty adults and students left Carmel in the wee hours of the morning, yesterday, for four wonderful days of skiing at Badger Pass, Yosemite. The trip is being sponsored by the Carmel High Ski Club under the direction of Superintendent Stuart Mitchell, and Mr. Richard Hagadorn.

Those lucky people who went on the trip are: Buzzy May, John Moore, Gilbert Neill, John Riebe, Mansfield Turney, Chris Williams, Nancy Bacon, Edwina Brown, Sheila Buchanan, Collette Ferguson, Barbara Horne, Diana Horne, Mary Horne, Sally Holt, Sherrie Henderson, Shirley Johnson, Allene Knight, Alys Knight, Sibyl Kocher, Judy Kohn, Ann Luker, Gay Masten, Joyce Morris, Pat Ricketts, Susan Stoney, Pat Sturday, Carol Timbers, Jane Trappe, Sue McCloud, Marian Williams, Beverly Woods, Carole Smith, Renee Wurzmann, Miss Dorothy Wright, Mr. Richard Hagadorn, Mr. Stuart Mitchell, Mr. Howard Byrne, Mr. Edward Brown, Mr. Gerald Henderson, Mr. Fritz Wurzmann, Mr. Howard Timbers, Mr. Harold Nielsen, and Mr. Gene Ricketts.

The Drama class presented a play called Slow Curtain to the student body at an assembly, Thursday, February 15. The play, a comedy, was enthusiastically received by the audience. The cast, which was made up of drama students, included Deborah Geering, Sherrie Henderson, Kathy Seipel, Nancy Nutter, Linda Feek, and Jane Trappe. The play was directed by Howard Veit. The techanical staff was: stage manager, Jim Moran; assistant stage manager, Jack Hilgers; prompter, Conrad Ege; properties, Bill White; advertising, Bill Burke; and make-up, Jack Hilgers.

The new latin Club officers for the second semester are president, Barbara McCrea; vice-president, Diana Horne; secretary, Pat Merivale; treasurer, Ruth Harrington; and program chairman, Sue Stoney.

Carole Smith hosted a group of Juniors and Seniors and their dates to a party at her home two weeks ago. The couples danced, partook of refreshments, talked, and generally had an enjoyable time. Some of those present were Kaky Brants and Al Greene, Mary Adams and Rod Dresser, Judy Kohn and Howard Veit, Sherrie Henderson and Mike McClure, Suzanne Smith and Hans Doelman, Mavis Jones and Ken Wightman, June Updike and Frans Doelman, Sandra Crabb and Bud Grant, Judy Oliver and Butch Laugenour, Carol Timbers and Bill Daniels, Gay Masten and Henry Overin, Peggy Glazer and John Fortier, Pat Harn and Henry Werner, Nancy Bacon and Bob Campbell, Edwina Brown and Chris Williams, and the hostess and her date, Stewart Emery.

Conrad Ege held a party at his home following the Carmel vs. King City basketball game, Friday night, February 16.

Some couples attending were: Mary Adams and Dod Dresser, Janet Graft and John Riebe, Carole Smith and Ken Wightman, Diane Lewis and Frans Doelman, Diane Ramsey and Stewart Emery, Gay Masten and Henry Overin, Jane Trappe and Bill White, Sheila Buchanan and Ron Stoney, Linda Feek and Howard Veit, Donna Douglas and Bob Updike, Judy Kohn and Thor Rasmussen, Peggy Weaver and Bill Daniels, and the host and his date, Ann Spurr.

GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

Mrs. Cleo Wells' Third Grade, [illegible]

I am glad the Peninsula has a lion. I am glad that the people here made the soldier-owner happy by giving the lion a home.

—Joe Zoellen

Last night my dog got lost in the Carmel Woods. She was there all night. She was back this morning.—Karin Fellom.

My parents have gone to Mexico. I'm anxious for them to return because my mother says that she will bring back pictures for my class. We are studying the Pueblo Indians in the third grade.

—Nicky Wilson

I have a little dog. It is a little girl dog. She is very cute. She has long ears. Her name is Mitzi.

—Susan Coleman

We are reading a story about the animals who made a home. Our Indian book is called Waterless Mountain.—Kathleen Aldrich.

I have a little dog. Her name is Molly. She is a Beagle. I like to play with her, but when I was sick I could not play with her and she is a girl and that is all. Goodbye.—Crista Getz.

Our cat came home this morning and he had been in a fight and when he came in, he was limping.

—Mary Buffington

The Indians live in tepees and pueblos. The Indians give us food, too. They give us corn and sweet potatoes. The Indians weave blankets and trade them at the trading store.—Jan Westcott.

I saw a picture of a lion over at Fort Ord in a cage.

—Katie Dunning

We are studying about Indians and we have a pueblo in our room. I was the first to put the paper on the pueblo.

—Meg Seccombe

I have a little cat who is as mean as a wildcat. He sleeps on my bed with me at night. We have the best time playing, and when I feed him he sits for me.

—Barbara Viljoen

I have started a printing club in my home. On Thursday, February 1, I had my first meeting. Joe and I started a newspaper. We call it News-Reel. Joe is president, Peter is first vice president, Bert is second vice president, Nicki Wilson is the treasurer, Gordon Parker is collector of news, and I am the editor.—Eric Norberg.

A HIKE

Yesterday my brother and I went on a hike up by Point Lobos. At about 11:30 we left our bikes. On the way we stopped at the rifle range. After that we stopped at the river. It had a lot of water in it. Then we went on and left our bikes in some brush and walked over to the cross. We went down to the rocks and ate lunch. Then we walked along the beach until we came to a little river and then we went up across the highway and climbed above the Fish Ranch. After that we went back to our bikes. Then we went home.

—Billy Wallace.

NATURE

When I was walking through the night
Looking at the sky,
I saw the stars so shiny bright, and then
I wondered why.

The sky turns black, and every day
The sun comes out quite bright
And his reflection on the moon
Shows up and makes her white.

Then comes the deep sea waters
And the dashing of the waves
And the miniature coves
And the great dark caves.

Also there are animals
Their lives still whirl around;
Some on land, some on sea,
And some are underground.

All these things that Nature gives
Are precious unto me,
The land, the sky, the animals,
The twilight and the sea.

—Elizabeth Snite

SCIENCE AND HEALTH CLASSES

One day our teacher, Mr. Blee, told us that we were going to change classes. He said that we would not [illegible] any more. We would have the other sixth grade join our class on Mondays and Tuesdays and would read and talk about science. On Wednesdays and Thursdays we would go into Mrs. Rea's room and would have Health Education. On Fridays each child would be with his own class.

On Mondays and Tuesdays we talk and read about science. Our teacher is reading a book on toads and frogs. He has read this book from the time the eggs have hatched to when they have grown as big as they can.

On Wednesdays and Thursdays we go into the other room and talk and read about health. We have learned the parts of the body and how to greet somebody and how to say good-bye.

On Friday we stay in our own class and talk and read about science. We have learned the parts of birds and the ones who prey on other animals.

I think this is a very good way to do science and health education and I think this is a very good idea for other schools.

LINCOLN

Abe Lincoln was
A mighty man.
He worked as hard
As any man can.
He fought for freedom
Of the slave
And fought for their rights
To the very grave.
In all his short life
He met many a strife,
But he overcame them
In the end.

OUR PLAY

We are giving a play on February 23 about Abraham Lincoln. The characters are Walter Marx as Lincoln, T. J. Nelsen as Captain Blair, and Leslie Geyer as Warry. The others helping with the play at the present are: Bob Leidig, Bob Seipel, and Mike Hanley, lights and sets; Charles Dawson as Lincoln at Gettysburg. Bob Dunbrow and Churchill as narrators. Suzanne Bestor is student director. Included in the play are songs and a dance done in the [illegible]

THE VALENTINE PARTY

On February 14, I went with my mother and father to a folk dance Valentine Pary. It was put on by Los Bailadores de Monterey. They invited the Shindiggers, the Danish Group, and Los Rancheros.

I helped make the programs. On the front of each program was a little Valentine girl made with a Valentine body and half a lace doily for a skirt.

One of the dances I liked most and thought the funniest was Shuddlebux. It means shake your pants. It's a fisherman's dance. The fishermen wear real baggy pants; almost like skirts, and they shake them every once in a while during the dance. I laughed because the men didn't have on their Shuddlebux costumes. Instead, they had on their Spanish costumes.—Karen Rice.

ANIMALS

The 'possum has a long pointed nose.
The raccoon has little toes.
The woodchuck lives in the ground.
The otter swims round and round.
The mink has sleek black fur.
But the porcupine is a bachelor.

—Shirley Thiele

ANIMALS

Animals, animals, animals everywhere.
Animals in the forest.
Animals in the marsh.
Animals in the desert.
Animals in the meadows.
Animals, animals, animals everywhere.

—Carole Glem

THE RACCOON

The raccoon is a neat little animal. He washes all his food before eating. They also get in people's garbage cans. Raccoons may look like robbers because of the masks on their faces. They are also fond of sweet acorns. The father raccoon stays away from his family and goes his own way. He uses his front paws as hands and hind legs as feet that leaves prints like that of a small child's.

In winter it is hard for them to find food so instead they hibernate. It would be more interesting to see one.—Pari Storch.

MINK

The mink is a very expensive fur. Some mink coats are worth $12,000 and it takes over 100 pelts to make a large fur coat.

The mink itself is a very good fighter and has sharp teeth.

I'd Like to Know . . .

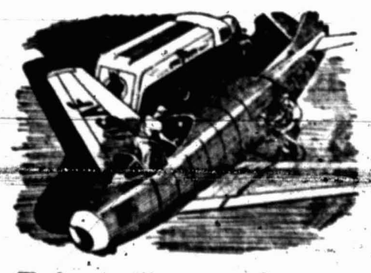

You may have heard that a suit has been filed by the Antitrust Division in Washington to break up Standard of California as well as six other West Coast oil companies. Many people have written us protesting this action, have asked pertinent questions. We believe these questions should be answered for everyone. We take this way of doing so. If you have a question, write: "I'd Like to Know" 225 Bush Street, San Francisco 20

"Would breaking up big oil companies affect national defense?"

Mrs. Marie-Louise Auer, Pasadena housewife, writes: It seems to me like a bad time to be tampering with our industries, as the antitrust lawyers want to do. Or does it matter? Would breaking up big oil companies affect national defense?" Mrs. Marie-Louise Auer

Here at Standard, one of the seven Western oil companies under attack, we see clear public benefit in having big companies in the business at all times. We believe we serve you well. But let's consider now just "bigness" and defense:

Today, military needs come first. Just recently, need for aviation gasolines jumped 275% in the West alone. Big oil companies supplied it.

Next: industry's demands. You know how industrial output keyed U.S. strength in World War II. It takes big companies to meet big needs.

Company bigness also means big-scale research, improved products. Example: oils developed by Standard which tripled range of U.S. subs.

For hard jobs, the U.S. uses our bigness and integration. Today, our U.S. projects include atomic research and a synthetic rubber plant.

Our taxes also aid defense. As one big company, we paid over $95,000,000 last year, more than we would pay as several smaller companies.

Meanwhile, bigness and integration enable us to keep on supplying products you need. Isn't this what you want from your oil company?

Ann Rigdon Married

Ann Rigdon became the bride of Robert Bell last week in the chambers of Judge Ray Baugh in Monterey. The ceremony took place at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, February 13, with only a few close friends and the groom's mother, Mrs. Harold Studevant, attending.

Ann, who is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Jonathan M. Rigdon, returned from Japan a month ago where she had been visiting her parents since her graduation from Monterey Peninsula College last year. She and her sister, Margaret, who is now attending the Santa Barbara College, both taught English to Japanese girls while in Japan.

Colonel Rigdon is with the Army of Occupation.

For her wedding, the bride chose a charming powder blue dress with navy accessories, and a mauve pink hat and gloves. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Elizabeth Hendricks was her maid of honor, and she wore a navy blue suit with a corsage of white carnations and red roses.

Harry Turner of Carmel was the best man.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Harold Studevant, appeared in navy blue.

The young couple met two years ago while both were attending Monterey Peninsula College. The groom is now with the Air Force stationed at Riverside, California. He grew up in Carmel and graduated from Sunset and Carmel High School.

Ann came here with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Rigdon, in 1942, also went to Sunset and graduated from Carmel High.

Following a brief honeymoon in Palo Alto and San Francisco where they took in Kiss Me Kate, they left for Riverside.

Born At Monterey Hospital

Born on the morning of February 14 at the Monterey Hospital was Ellen Scot Fielding, the infant daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Ted R. Fielding (Jaqueline Work).

Lt. Fielding is serving with the army in Korea.

The baby is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Work, Jr., of Pebble Beach, and of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fielding of Honolulu.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Glorienn (Dici) Douglas to Arthur Harber was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. McGlynn, Jr., of Pebble Beach. Arthur Harber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harber of Carmel.

They will be married on Sunday, February 25, at the Church of the Wayfarer at 3 p.m., with Rev. K. Fillmore Gray officiating. A reception will be held after the ceremony at the Carmel Youth Center.

Both Glorienn and Arthur are graduates of Carmel High School and attended Monterey Peninsula College for two years where Arthur was a star football player and Glorienn was known as MPC's "own Doris Day."

Glorienn's sister is Mrs. Richard Hendricks of Carmel and her brother is Thomas Lee McGlynn of Pebble Beach. Arthur Harber, has two brothers, Victor and David, and a sister, Louise, all of whom live in Carmel.

The bride-to-be was honored at a shower at the Carmel residence of Mrs. Gene Vandervort last week. Among those who attended were Carol Templeman, Donna Douglas, June Updike, Benita Updike, Louise Harber, Evelynn Vandervort, Joan Vandervort, Georgann Bell, Marilyn Draper, Bobby Sapsis, Jerry Yoakum, Carol Ann Smith and Janice Harney.

On Friday night, February 16, Mrs. McGlynn, the bride-to-be's mother, invited 25 young people to an Italian dinner in her Pebble Beach home. She was assisted by Mrs. Floyd E. Harber and Mrs. Richard Hendricks.

Pine Needles . . .

United in marriage on Saturday, February 17, at 5 p.m. were Patricia Ford and Alexander Henderson. The ceremony, which took place at the Carmel Valley home the bride's mother, Mrs. G. Faunce Whitcombe, was performend by Rev. Alfred B. Seccombe of All Saints' Episcopal Church in Carmel.

Patricia, who is known to her friends as Pat, wore a ballerina length gown of white lace with long sleeves, and over her hair a little cap with a white veil and flowers. She carried a bouquet of small white orchids and bouvardia.

She was given in marriage by her father, Byington Ford of the Valley.

Her attendants were her two sisters, Mrs. Felix Cordrey and Mrs. Dean Wolter. Both appeared in ballerina length dresses of violet with pleated skirts, and they carried bouquets of spring flowers in pink and fuschia shades.

Alexander Henderson, Sr., who came out from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for the ceremony was best man.

The bride's mother, Mrs. G. Faunce Whitcombe, chose a coffee-colored dress and wore a corsage of small yellow orchids. Mrs. Mary Henderson of Inglewood, New Jersey, the mother of the groom, appeared in a brown silk cocktail gown and her flowers were orchids in brown and deep gold.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception at the Whitcombe residence and champagne and wedding cake were served.

For a going-away outfit, the new Mrs. Henderson chose a cocoa-colored dress and a brown hat.

The newlyweds left for San Jose where they will live until the groom completes his studies at San Jose State College.

Welcome Cottage News

Welcome Cottage, the house belonging to the Church of the Wayfarer which has recently been established as a center for servicemen, got off to a good start last week end when over 25 men from Fort Ord turned up. The servicemen apparently enjoyed the hospitality of the Cottage.

Several members of the Auxiliary of the Carmel Mission will assist Mrs. Barbara Murphy, chairman of the house committee, as hostesses this week end.

At the monthly meeting Saturday night of the Welcome Cottage committee, Commander John Chitwood was elected executive vice-chairman.

The resignation of Mrs. Frank G. Ringland, who organized the Welcome Cottage project and who until now has been serving as chairman of the Welcome Cottage committee, was regretfully received.

At her suggestion, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, who is chairman of the house committee, was named as chairman in her place.

The Board expressed its thanks to Mrs. Ringland for her fine work in setting up the organization and establishing Welcome Cottage. They requested that Mrs. Ringland continue as a member and advisor which she consented to do.

Newcomers

The Carmel birth rate soared to four this week with the arrival of four little newcomers at the Peninsula Community Hospital.

First to arrive was Paul Vincent Castagnetto, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Castagnetto, on Valentine's Day.

Born February 15 was Wanda Shalene Jones, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones. ....

February 17 was the birthday of Christopher Laiolo, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Berand F. Laiolo.

A little girl who has not yet been named arrived on February 19 for Mr. and Mrs. Travis L. Johnson.

Surprise Bridal Shower

There was a surprise bridal shower for LaRene McIntyre at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bruce Kendall, in Del Rey Woods Tuesday. LaRene, whose engagement to Raymond Stevenson of Fort Ord was announced several weeks ago, will be married at the Presidio Chapel, March 3.

Mrs. A. W. McIntyre and Mrs. Robert Zarp, the bride-to-be's mother and sister, helped Mrs. Kendell with her duties as hostess at the shower. They served a buffet luncheon, and the table was lovely with a charming white lace cloth and four cakes which were completely encircled by masses of red camellias. There were white candles and tall white candelabra, too, and in the livingroom there was a box decorated to resemble a hope chest in which the gifts brought by LaRene's many friends were piled.

The house was decorated throughout with little umbrellas and gay streamers.

Among those who attended were Mrs. John Furman, Mrs. Carol Boight, Mrs. Henry Lopez, Mrs. Daniel Olivera, Mrs. Francis Jewell, Mrs. Byron Prior, Mrs. Sidney Schultz, Mrs. George Barge, Mrs. Donald Pitts, Mrs. Robert Mehringer, Mrs. Grace Hillburn, Mrs. Ernest Roush, Mrs. Glen Bradley, Mrs. Mike Sumpter, Mrs. Maud Gillan, Mrs. Arthur Tracy, Mrs. Robert Zarp, Mrs. A. W. McIntyre, Mrs. Bruce Kindall, Miss Marilyn Moffatt, Miss Barbara Tracy, Miss Clare Wermuth, Miss Ruthann Moffett, Miss Barbara Soderstron, Miss Anita Riccibona, Miss Karen Wendall, and Miss Pat Machado.

Others who were invited and sent gifts but were unable to attend were Mrs. Clyde Barkell, Mrs. Morris Yocumb, Mrs. A. Patterson, Mrs. E. Dean, Miss Margaret Dean, Miss Sharon Zarp, Miss Barbara Zarp and Miss Darleen Zarp.

LaRene McIntyre, a former Carmel High School student, met her fiance Thanksgiving Day. At her wedding next Saturday, Miss Barbara Tracy will be the maid-of-honor and LaRene's niece, 7-year-old Karen Kendall, will be the flower girl. Robert Zarp will be best man.

Lansdownes Visiting

Commander and Mrs. F. M. Lansdowne and their 7-year-old son, Zachary, arrived Thursday night from Hunter's Point for a visit with Mrs. Lansdowne's mother, Mrs. Fenton Grigsby. They celebrated Mrs. Lansdowne's birthday with a family-dinner, coinciding with George Washington's birthday.

The Lansdown's are building a house in the Carmel Valley and come down frequently to see how it is getting on.

On Honor Roll At M.P.C.

Several Carmel students are on the honor roll at Monterey Peninsula College for the recently-ended fall semester, according to Harold Parker, Dean of Student Personnel.

They are Katherine Bolton, David Grafft, Duane Graham, Legare McNeill and Sandra Pope.

In order to get on the honor roll, it is necessary to come out with a 2.0 grade point or B average and to be enrolled in 12 units or more. Altogether 50 students at M. P. C. were on the honor roll for the fall semester.

House-Warming At The Bjornvolds

There was a gala house-warming Sunday for the new William Bjornvold residence at Trevis way and Mesa drive in Hatton Fields. People started streaming in early in the afternoon and festivities went on until late in the evening.

The Bpornvolds formerly lived on Mission street between Fifith and Sixth and the new house was mainly constructed by William Bjornvold, himself, with the help of his numerous brothers-in-law. It has a wonderful outlook of the Carmel Valley, and everyone admired the enormous plate-glass windows which reach from floor to ceiling.

Hors-d'oevres and punch were served to the 65 guests who dropped in during the course of the day.

Among those who turned up were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nickelson, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ruggett, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Giles, Mrs. Anna Westcott, Mrs. Janet Giles, Mr. and Mrs. George Mosoll, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hawkeswood, Miss Rose Gossler, Mrs. Frank Abbe, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Marcoli, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brown, Miss Verne Westcott, Mr. Frank Marcoli, Miss Margaret Bennet, Mr. and Mrs. Egan Durr, Mrs. Giles Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. G. Q—How can I season the leather of new shoes?

A—Wear the new shoes a few times to break them in, then rub Vaseline jelly over them and put away for a few weeks. This will season the leather.

Interesting Meeting Held By Stamp Club

At the last meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club Monday evening, February 19 in the Sunset School cafeteria, George Conn of Carmel was the speaker.

Introduced by Program Chairman L. S. Stallings, Mr. Conn traced mail facilities and rates from Colonial times to the present. He explained that the colonies fixed the postal rate at 6 cents for 100 miles, but the Continental Congress doubled the rates, and they have been doubling taxes ever since.

Acts of Congress providing for "drop" letters, "locals", "weight" letters and various carrier charges in use before the first prepaid stamps were first put into circulation in 1855. These were the famous 5-cent brown and 10-cent blue.

Mr. Conn then exhibited three frames of early letters without covers which were folded over and sealed with wax. An example of "free" mail was one from Edith Bolling Wilson, wife of the President.

At the beginning of the meeting, Colonel John R. Wright, president, called the attention of those attending to the box for donations of stamps to the Veterans Hospital.

The next meeting will be an auction meeting at 8 p.m., on Monday, March 5. It will also be held in the cafeteria of Sunset School. All stamp collectors and their friends are invited to come and bring surplus stamps to sell at the auction; also to bring money for purchasing stamps.

wearing profusion numbers of towels and dishcloths as costumes. Some disported themselves as nude nymphs.

"Providing a static backdrop for all this choreographic movement, small clusters of men sat around weeping copiously into their beers, singing old hymns and ballads in lush, uncertain harmonies, reaching back into their memories to days of indolence and peace, far past their tangles with John Law to the eternal innocence of childhood."

The inscription to the volume is a quotation from George Bernard Shaw. It reads: "The first prison I ever saw had inscribed on it 'Cease to Do Evil: Learn to Do Well, but as the inscription was on the outside, the prisoners could not read it."—B.I.

Newsman Tells His Own Success Story

Throughout the years there have been numerous success stories of how this man or that man started from nothing and finally achieved prosperity. But the best of all success stories is where a man in a run-down condition finally gets to where he feels wonderful again. William Bogard, newspaper reporter in Sulphur Springs, Texas, has such a story to tell. Yes, now that Mr. Bogard is taking HADACOL, he says, "I wish I could tell my story to every man and woman in the country who is now suffering as I was suffering." Mr. Bogard was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Wm. Bogard

Here is Mr. Bogard's own statemen telling how HADACOL helped him:

"Two years ago, at age 40, I was convinced that nothing remained for me in life. The most encouraging words I ever heard were: 'Maybe you will get straightened out after a while.' The only thing that really mattered to me was how I felt and the fact that my apparent decline had brought my many dreams and aspirations in total ruins before my feet.

"I heard and read many stories and testimonials concerning HADACOL, but, unfortunately for me, I didn't take any of them seriously. I considered these testimonials to be from fictitious people with imaginary ills who talked solely for money. How wrong I was! In spite of my wariness, I decided to give HADACOL a try. I took great care that no one knew I was taking it because I feared their ridicule.

"I took three bottles of HADACOL before I began to 'feel' its effects. After that, my progress was steady and sure. My appetite picked up. I not only ate at meal time, which I had not been doing before, but I enjoyed in-between-meal snacks of delicacies which I had long since forgotten.

"I wish I could tell my story to every man and woman in the country who is suffering as I was suffering; I wish I could let them know and make them believe that what I say is all truth and none fiction."

Remember HADACOL is sold on a strict money-back guarantee. And so inexpensive. Trial-size bottle only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, La.

Mackey Swan Sings In M.A.C. Sponsored Open Concert March 3

Mackey Swan, baritone, will sing in the Carmel High School Auditorium Saturday, March 3 at 8 p.m. under the auspices of the Musical Art Club. His wife, Lyn Swan, will accompany him.

Mr. Swan was a student of Madame Amelita Galli Curci, and his musical experience includes opera, radio, television and oratorio. He has appeared with the Philadelphia Opera Company, and for the past five years had been a member of the vocal faculty of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Musical Art.

Born in the Orient, Mackey Swan travelled extensively with his parents throughout the world, but came to the United States for his prep school and college education. He studied for four years under Boris Bly, sculptor and painter, at Temple University. Later he turned to music.

Mrs. Swan is a student of Homer Samuels, the husband and accompanist of Mme. Galli Curi. She was a member of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Musical Art Faculty.

Mr. Swan has recently opened a studio in Carmel at San Carlos and Fourth, and is the soloist for the First Church of Christ Scientist.

The concert, March 3, is to be an open one, and all music lovers are invited to attend.

Save Your Jobless Pay!

largely eliminate the rackets connected with quitting a job by a worker who wants a vacation or for some other spurious reason.

The other half of the "voluntary quit" situation, that is, the subterfuges used by persons who do not want to take another job, does not necessarily require legislation.

Addition of sufficient investigators to the unemployment commission personnel might be enough to cope with this racket. Then the commission could see if the applicant really tried to get a new job or deliberately acted in such a manner he was turned down.

The interests of workers and employers alike demand that the legislature make these changes.

If the balance in the unemployment reserve fund falls below a certain level, the commission can stop all unemployment insurance payments.

This certainly is of interest to the workers.

Before the level of the fund reaches the low point where all payments are stopped, the tax on employers' payrolls certainly will be raised.

This should be of interest to employers.

Therefore, all honest workers should join with honest employers in urging their legislators, state senators and assemblymen, to enact these reform bills. Naturally, the chiselers will be against them.

Another vital corrective measure will be described in the next installment.

League Of Women Voters

The Monterey Peninsula League of Women Voters will have a general membership meeting this afternoon, at 2 p.m., in the House of the Four Winds in Monterey. Its purpose is to acquaint the membership-at-large with the results of the various workshop study groups.

Miss Orre Haseltine will give a report on the County Government group, which has been meeting at Monterey Peninsula College, and Mrs. Louise Althorp will present an account of the study on Conservation of Natural Resources.

Following the reports, a film entitled Searchlight on the Nations, which has been furnished through the courtesy of the Monterey Public Library, will be shown. The film comes from the Department of Visual Instruction of the University of California Extension Division, and depicts the tremendous communication job accomplished by the United Nations in the press, radio, television and cinema. It emphasizes the importance of the free exchange of information, stressing the fields of food, agriculture, health, education, aviation economics. The film also shows the General Assembly of the U. N. in plenary session and the complications of the task of recording and broadcasting the voices of the speakers.

Awarded Another Oak Leaf

First Lieutenant William P. Dougherty, who is at present flying missions over Korea, was recently awarded an additional Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal. The presentation was made by Brig. Gen. E. J. Timberlake, Jr., Vice Commander of the Fifth Air Force on the flight line of an advanced air base in southern Japan.

Lieut. Dougherty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dougherty who live at Sante Fe and Sixth in Carmel, and he attended Carmel High School before going to West Point where he received his commission in 1948. He got his pilot's wings the following year, in 1949.

The citation accompanying the Oak Leaf Cluster states that Lieut. Dougherty distinguished himself by successfully completing 10 combat missions against the enemy in Korea. He is the pilot of an F-80 jet plane.

His wife, Caroline, and the two children are with the lieutenant in Japan. Mrs. Dougherty is the daughter of Neil F. Dougherty of Pebble Beach.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, February 25, for which the Golden Text has been taken from Psalms: "The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations" (33:11).

Citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, comprising the sermon, will include the following:

I Corinthians 2:16: "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ."

Science and Health: "Having no other gods, turning to no other but the one perfect Mind to guide him, man is the likeness of God, pure and eternal, having that Mind which was also in Christ" (p. 467).

Irene d Galler

Irene Polleys d Galler, a resident of Carmel for the past 15 years and active in community affairs, died early Thursday morning at her home at Monte Verde and Tenth following a long illness. She was 70 years of age and a native of La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Her family was prominent in the development of the lumber industry in the northern middle west for many years. After living for 25 years in Southern California, she came to Carmel in 1936.

She was for many years treasurer of the Los Angeles Chapter of the D.A.R., and in Carmel was active in the Carmel Woman's Club and the Church of the Wayfarer.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Catherine d Galler Smith and a granddaughter, Suzanne Smith, both of Carmel.

Services, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea Crematorium with the Rev. K. Fillmore Gray officiating. Paul's Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

will be exciting for the whole community.

At Carmel Highlands, Ephraim Doner is in charge of transforming the great studio of the Millard house into a gallery, with pictures hung one above the other, standing on easels and suspended from the balconies in generous profusion, as in an eighteenth century salon. This resemblance will probably cease with the works themselves which will represent almost every existing style and perhaps even introduce a few new techniques.

Harrydick Ross and Henry Miller are developing a tempera and India ink method which produces strange luminous effects and Virginia Blair is presently engaged in creating a ceramic painting, reviving an ancient and almost unknown art.

The list of artists to be represented in the first show is not yet complete, thus far it includes Sam Harris, Virginia Blair, Ellwood Graham, Richard Lofton, Barbara Stevenson, Gerald Wasserman, Ephraim Doner, Margaret Millard, John O'Shea, Erica Franke, Bruce Ariss, Fred Klepich, Jean Kellogg, Jack Morganrauth, Marry Miller, Sam Colburn, Harrydick Ross, Judith Myrer, David Tollerton, Crete Singer, Henry Miller, Franz Sandau, Emil White, Margaret O'Neill and Francesca Sandau.

Public response to the plans and purposes of the New Group has been wonderfully encouraging and we are all working with enthusiasm for what we hope will be a brilliant first show.—E.F.
